IGF 2021 POLICY NETWORKS

The policy networks are facilitated by multistakeholder working groups of experts, based on a broad bottom-up, open and inclusive, community consultation.

PREPARATORY WORK	POLICY NETWORK ON ENVIRONMENT (PNE)	POLICY NETWORKS ON MEANINGFUL ACCESS (PNMA)
Virtual meetings	6 open online meetings hosted 1 Call for inputs 1 open consultation on the first draft version - PNE participated in 2 capacity development workshops 1 PNE session at the 16th IGF	6 open online meetings hosted 1 Call for inputs 1 open consultation on the first draft version - PNMA participated in 2 capacity development workshops 1 PNMA session at the 16th IGF
Multistakeholder Working Group	20 experts from all stakeholder groups including MAG liaisons https://www.intgovforum.org/en/content/pne-multistakeholder-working-group	25 experts from all stakeholder groups including MAG liaisons https://www.intgovforum.org/en/content/pnma-multistakeholder-working-group
Mailing list	1 open mailing list (200 subscribers) 1 working mailing list for the MWG (30 subscribers)	1 open mailing list (103 subscribers) 1 working mailing list for the MWG (41 subscribers)
Output document	Output document available at the IGF website focused on: Environmental Data Food & Water Systems Supply Chain Transparency and Circularity Overarching Issues	Output document under development focused on: Why achieving meaningful and universal Internet access remains so challenging?